

Beware of Email Scams

Date: August 1, 2022

The Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) was notified of a new scam email message attempting to get your personal information. Texans are warned not to provide any personally identifiable information or transact any business except through TWC's Unemployment Benefits Services (UBS) portal, fraud portal, Tele-Serv (automated phone system) or Tele-Centers. Do not click on any link provided in an email or a text.

TWC received information of a scam email message indicating a new document has been added to the Texas Unemployment Insurance Benefits portal. The email indicates it is from the Texas Department of Employment and Economic Development, which is not the correct name for TWC. It also says action is needed and to select a link provided in the email, then log on using your credentials. This email is a scam.

You should not click on any link provided by an email or text message. Instead, always go to the TWC webpage or use a bookmark that you have previously verified as accurate. If unsure, contact TWC to verify the legitimacy of the information. See below for the correct web addresses.

- UBS home page: ui.texasworkforce.org or twc.texas.gov/jobseekers/unemployment-benefits-services
- UBS log on page: apps.twc.state.tx.us/UBS/security/logon.do
- TWC official website: twc.texas.gov

All Texans should take steps to secure their identity online by practicing Internet security best practices. Treat your TWC account and all accounts like you would your bank account. TWC will investigate every unemployment benefit claim to confirm identity and to lock accounts that are fraudulent.
