Deadline Approaching for Disaster Unemployment Assistance

Nine Texas counties affected by March storms has upcoming deadline

AUSTIN – The Texas Workforce Commission reminds individuals impacted by the severe storms, tornadoes, straight-line winds and flooding that began March 7 has an upcoming deadline to apply for Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA) under Presidential Disaster Declaration (FEMA-4266-DR). The following counties are under these deadlines:

- 11:59 p.m. CDT Wednesday, April 20 for Jasper, Newton and Orange counties
- 11:59 p.m. CDT Wednesday, April 27 for Erath, Gregg, Harrison, Hood, Marion and Parker counties

Impacted workers and self-employed individuals affected by the March storms in these counties can apply for benefits online at Unemployment Benefit Services or by calling a TWC Tele-Center Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. at 800-939-6631. Individuals should specify that their applications are related to the damage caused by severe storms, tornadoes, straight-line winds and flooding.

Storm victims can also visit any Workforce Solutions office to apply for DUA. Applications for DUA filed after the April deadlines will be considered untimely, unless the individual provides good cause for applying late.

DUA, which is unemployment insurance benefits made available especially for victims of disaster, is available to individuals who:

- Have applied for and used all regular unemployment benefits from any state, or do not qualify for unemployment benefits
- Worked or were self-employed or were scheduled to begin work or self-employment in the disaster area
- Can no longer work or perform services because of physical damage or destruction to the place of employment as a direct result of the disaster
- Establish that the work or self-employment they can no longer perform was their primary source of income
- Cannot perform work or self-employment because of an injury as a direct result of the disaster
- Became the breadwinner or major support of a household because of the death of the head of household

To receive DUA benefits, all required documentation must be submitted within 21 days from the day the DUA application is filed. Required documentation includes Social Security number, a copy of the most recent federal income tax form or check stubs, or documentation to support that you were working or self-employed when the disaster occurred.
