

Christopher “Mark” Baird of San Angelo is a Vocational Rehabilitation Supervisor for the Texas Workforce Commission. He previously served as a Unit Support Coordinator and Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor for the Texas Workforce Commission and the Texas Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Services and as a Community Supervision Officer for Concho Valley Community Supervision and Corrections Department. He is a member of the Concho Valley Workforce Development Board. Baird received a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from Texas Tech University and a Master in Rehabilitation Counseling from Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center.

Glenda Born of Austin is a retired Assistive Technology Specialist for the Texas Workforce Commission. During her 40-year career, she served as Director and Qualified Mental Retardation Professional at Marbridge Foundation Intermediate Care Facility for developmentally challenged women, a Rehabilitation Teacher and Team Coordinator for the Texas Commission for the Blind and a Work Adjustment Specialist for the Travis Association for the Blind. Additionally, she holds a professional counselor’s license. Born received a Bachelor of Science and Master in Education from Stephen F. Austin State University.

Erin “Amanda” Bowdoin of Forney is a Teacher of Students with Visual Impairments and a brailist for Mesquite ISD. She is a former volunteer for the American Foundation for the Blind and Visually Impaired and a former member of the Expanded Core Curriculum (ECC) Committee for Region 10 Education Service Center. She is a member of the National Family Association of DeafBlind, and a member of Deafblind International as well. Bowdoin received a Bachelor of Arts in elementary education from Texas A&M University-Commerce and a Master of Education in special education specializing in visual impairment from Stephen F. Austin University. Bowdoin is currently in the DeafBlind Certification Program at Texas Tech.

Lisa Cowart of Sour Lake is the TEAM Project Director for Partners Resource Network. She is an advisory committee member of SpedTex, a general member of the Society for Human Resources Management, and the chair of the Consumer Satisfaction and Needs Assessment Committee of the Rehabilitation Council of Texas. Cowart received a Bachelor of Business Administration in marketing from Lamar University.

Jennifer Clouse of Temple is Inclusion and Diversity Manager for McLane Company, Inc. She is a board member for Disability IN: Central Texas. Additionally, she was recognized as a Champion of Change for Disability Employment in 2014. Clouse received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Midwestern State University and a Master of Science in Leadership and Management from Western Governors University.

Michele Norris of La Porte is a Regional Blind Services Specialist at Texas Workforce Solutions. Previously, she served as a Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor. Dobbins received a Bachelor of Science in Political Science from Saint Vincent College and a Master of Science in Clinical Vocational Rehabilitation Counseling from Texas Tech University.

Cheryl Fuller of Austin is the Vocational Rehabilitation Division Director for the Texas Workforce Commission. She is a member of the executive committee and co-chair of the management services committee for the Council of State Administrators of Vocational Rehabilitation. She has nearly thirty years of experience in state and local workforce development programs. Fuller received a Bachelor of Science in communications from Angelo State University.

Lindsey Geeslin of Waco is Sales Manager for Lhoist North America. She is a member of the Texas Workforce Investment Council, the Texas Masonry Council, and volunteers her time to the Waco Community through the Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo & Extraco Events Center. Geeslin received a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture Business and Management from Texas State University.

Gennadiy Goldenshteyn of Dallas is Managing Director of First Principles, LLC, a boutique management consulting firm. He has held leadership positions at Welbilt, Yum! Brands, UTC Aerospace Systems, and Ford, and has served numerous companies with McKinsey & Company. He currently sits on the Board of Directors of Deaf Action Center. Goldenshteyn received a Bachelor of Science in engineering from the University of California at Berkeley and a Master of Science in engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

April Pollreisz of Amarillo, Texas is a voting member of the Rehabilitation Council of Texas, Chair of the Texas State Independent Living Council, and President of PILC, a center for independent living in Amarillo. Mrs. Pollreisz is a former professional in the insurance and finance industry. She received a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice and a Master of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies (Psychology, Sociology, and Criminal Justice) from West Texas A&M University. Mrs. Pollreisz has been visually impaired since birth. She has a passion for disability advocacy and the Independent Living Movement.

Joseph Powell of Dallas is the President and CEO of the Association of Persons Affected by Addiction, Dallas. He is an Allied Health Professional and Peer Chair of the Texas Certification Board. Additionally, he is an advisory member of the National Southwest Addiction Technology Transfer Center. Powell attended Eastfield College and Amber University for social work and substance use.

Emily Robinson of Pflugerville is an Educational Program Specialist at the Texas Education Agency. She is a member of Texas Association of the Deaf. Robinson received a Bachelor of Arts in Communications Sciences and Disorders and a Master of Science in Education of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing from Texas Woman's University.

Rodrick D. Robinson of McKinney is founder and CEO of New Life Medical Equipment. He is a member of the Baylor Scott & White McKinney Medical Center Board of Trustees, the McKinney Airport Advisory Committee, and the McKinney Comprehensive Plan Committee. Additionally, he is an ordained Deacon at First McKinney Baptist Church and student mentor for McKinney ISD. Robinson received a Bachelor of Business Administration in Entrepreneurship and Strategic Management from the University of North Texas in Denton.

Peggy Schmidt of Lucas is Program Administrator for Supported Employment at LifePath Systems. She has nearly twenty-five years of experience in the field of Supported Employment. She is a member of the Association of People Supporting Employment First. Schmidt received a Bachelor of Science in Sociology and Criminal Justice from South Dakota State University. Peggy Schmidt of Lucas is Program Administrator for Supported Employment at LifePath Systems. She has nearly twenty-five years of experience in the field of Supported Employment. She is a member of the Association of People Supporting Employment First. Schmidt received a Bachelor of Science in Sociology and Criminal Justice from South Dakota State University.

Daniel Solcher of Allen is the President at Northampton Growth, LLC and the Director of Latin America Hearing Aid Mission. He is a board member of Be An Angel Foundation DFW Chapter. Additionally, he served as a volunteer for Sunshine Cottage School for the Deaf, Ability at AT&T, and San Antonio Deaf Action Center. Solcher received a Bachelor of General Studies from Texas Tech University. Daniel Solcher of Allen is the President at Northampton Growth, LLC and the Director of Latin America Hearing Aid Mission. He is a board member of Be An Angel Foundation DFW Chapter. Additionally, he served as a volunteer for Sunshine Cottage School for the Deaf, Ability at AT&T, and San Antonio Deaf Action Center. Solcher received a Bachelor of General Studies from Texas Tech University.

Karen Stanfill of Houston is Advocate Supervisor for the Client Assistance Program, (CAP), for Disability Rights Texas (DRTX). Prior to her employment at DRTX, she worked as a vocational rehabilitation counselor with the legacy Texas Rehabilitation Commission for 15 years. She is a member of the National Rehabilitation Association, the Texas Rehabilitation Association, and the Houston Area Rehabilitation Association. Additionally, she serves on the board of the National Coalition for State Rehabilitation Councils, which plans and provides training for state rehabilitation council members. Stanfill received a Bachelor of Science in Rehabilitation from Stephen F. Austin State University and Karen Stanfill of Houston is Advocate Supervisor for the Client Assistance Program, (CAP), for Disability Rights Texas (DRTX). Prior to her employment at DRTX, she worked as a vocational rehabilitation counselor with the legacy Texas Rehabilitation Commission for 15 years. She is a member of the National Rehabilitation Association, the Texas Rehabilitation Association, and the Houston Area Rehabilitation Association. Additionally, she serves on the board of the National Coalition for State Rehabilitation Councils, which plans and provides training for state rehabilitation council members.

Stanfill received a Bachelor of Science in Rehabilitation from Stephen F. Austin State University and is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor.

James Williams, Ed.D. of Leander is the Chief Executive Officer for Bloom Consulting. He serves as the Treasurer of the Texas Association of People Supporting Employment First and as a member of the International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals. Previously, he served as a Conference Planning Member of the College Autism Network and as a member of the Texas Rehabilitation Association. Williams received a Bachelor of Science in Special Education from Sam Houston State University, a Master of Arts in Rehabilitation Counseling from Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, and a Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership from Lamar University.