

RESEA Live!

Presented by: WDD, UI, and Workforce Solutions Staff
Created and narrated by: Bennett Burke RESEA Eval Facilitator

RESEA Program Overview

- Reemployment Services and Eligibility Assessment (RESEA)
- Mandatory for UI claimants who are likely to exhaust their benefits before finding work (26 weeks)
- Intensive reemployment services
- Ongoing accountability for claimants

Purpose: Shorten UI Duration

- Maximum UI duration in Texas is 26 weeks
- RESEA gets customers back to work more quickly
- Saves money for the state, increases earnings for customers
- Potential millions of dollars remain in the UI trust fund

Purpose: Prevent Fraud and Overpayments

- Increased contact with customers
- Accountability for claimants
- Providing services AND checking eligibility
- ID verification, work search logs, ensuring compliance

Purpose: WIOA integration

- Programs should interact
- RESEA and WIOA services can overlap
- Referrals between programs can result in reemployment credit for both
- Help customers transition to new careers and receive on-the-job-training (OJT)

Purpose: Entry to Services

- RESEA Service Providers can and should refer customers to additional services when appropriate
- Vocational Rehabilitation for disabled customers
- Adult Education and Literacy (AEL) for customers in need of GED
- Apprenticeships for customers in eligible occupations

RESEA or Reemployment Services

Meet the RESEA Customers

Customer Byron

Claims Adjuster impacted by automation
– wants to follow program requirements

- Hopeful about finding work soon
- Needs assistance with WorkInTexas.com
- Considering shifting to a new career

Customer Adrian

Construction Project Manager

- Potential eligibility issue due to community college enrollment
- Hardworking and optimistic about job prospects in Corpus Christi

Customer Angelica

Former VP of Sales – frustrated by mandatory RESEA appointments

- Has held senior-level employment
- Annoyed by program requirements

You Get a Job!

Every one of our customers was able to get back to work thanks to RESEA!

- Customer Byron is off to a new career as a Bank Manager with the help of WIOA OJT funds
- Customer Adrian got referred to a high-paying opening in his field
- Customer Angelica was able to get the inside scoop from ES staff on a senior-level sales role