CHAPTER 809. CHILD CARE SERVICES 1 2 PROPOSED RULES WITH PREAMBLE TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE TEXAS 3 REGISTER. THIS DOCUMENT WILL HAVE NO SUBSTANTIVE CHANGES BUT IS 4 SUBJECT TO FORMATTING CHANGES AS REQUIRED BY THE TEXAS REGISTER. 5 6 The Texas Workforce Commission (Commission) proposes to amend the following section of 7 8 Chapter 809, relating to Child Care Services: 9 Subchapter C. Eligibility for Child Care Services, §809.41 10 11 PURPOSE, BACKGROUND, AND AUTHORITY 12 PART I. PART II. EXPLANATION OF INDIVIDUAL PROVISIONS 13 14 PART III. IMPACT STATEMENTS PART IV. COORDINATION ACTIVITIES 15 16 17 PART I. PURPOSE, BACKGROUND, AND AUTHORITY 18 Title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA) of 19 1996, as amended, requires that providers of federal public benefits verify the citizenship or 20 immigration status of all beneficiaries of public assistance. The Child Care and Development 21 Fund (CCDF) is among the U.S. Health and Human Services programs that are subject to the 22 verification provisions of PRWORA. On November 25, 1998, the Administration for Children 23 and Families (ACF) issued Program Instruction ACYF-PI-CC-98-08 to clarify that the child is 24 the primary beneficiary of the CCDF program and as such only the child's citizenship or 25 immigration status is subject to verification. 26 27 PRWORA §432(d), as amended, exempts nonprofit charitable organizations that provide federal, 28 29 state, or local public benefits from determining, verifying, or otherwise requiring proof of citizenship or immigration status from any applicant for such benefits. In Program Instruction 30 ACYF-PI-CC-98-08, ACF affirmed that this exemption is applicable when nonprofit charitable 31 organizations determine eligibility for CCDF, but not applicable when governmental entities or 32 33 nonprofits that are not charitable organizations determine eligibility. Additionally, the CCDF Lead Agency cannot require nonprofit charitable organizations determining eligibility for the 34 CCDF program to verify citizenship and immigration status. 35 36 37 Texas Labor Code §302.023 requires that the administration of workforce development programs be delegated to the Local Workforce Development Boards (Boards) and Texas Government 38 39 Code §2308.264(a) prohibits Boards from directly determining eligibility for services. As a result, child care eligibility is determined by entities that contract with Boards--a majority of 40 41 which are nonprofit charitable organizations. ACF guidance in ACYF-PI-CC-98-08 did not specify whether the CCDF Lead Agency contracting with nonprofit charitable organizations --42 43 which are exempt from verifying a child's citizenship or immigration status--retains the responsibility for ensuring that such verification is conducted. 44 45

1	On May 2, 2008, ACF issued Program Instruction CCDF-ACF-PI-2008-01 to clarify its previous
2	guidance and respond to inquiries from a number of states regarding verification of citizenship or
3	immigration status of CCDF applicants. The Program Instruction states that while nonprofit
4	charitable organizations are exempt from the verification requirements mandated by Title IV of
5	PRWORA, the CCDF Lead Agency is not exempt from its responsibility to ensure that only
6	eligible individuals receive services. Therefore, when contracting directly or indirectly with a
7	nonprofit charitable organization that elects not to verify the citizenship or immigration status of
8	applicants for CCDF services, the Texas Workforce Commission, as the CCDF Lead Agency,
9	remains responsible for ensuring that a child's citizenship and immigration status is verified.
11	As a result of this clarification, the Commission proposes to amend Chapter 809, Child Care
12	Services rules, to ensure that a child's citizenship or legal immigrant status is verified as part of
13	the basic eligibility determination for CCDF services.
16	PART II. EXPLANATION OF INDIVIDUAL PROVISIONS
17
18	SUBCHAPTER C. ELIGIBILITY FOR CHILD CARE SERVICES
19	The Commission proposes the following amendment:
20
21	809.41. A Child's General Eligibility for Child Care Services
22	New §809.41(a)(2) is added to require that Boards must ensure that a child's citizenship or legal
23	status is verified as a component of eligibility for child care services.
24
25	This change reflects guidance from ACF that a child's citizenship or immigration status must be
26	verified to comply with PRWORA requirements.
27
28	Pursuant to §809.42(a), prior to authorizing child care a Board must ensure that its child care
29	contractor verifies eligibility for child care services, which includes a child's citizenship or
30	immigration status. Program Instruction CCDF-ACF-PI-2008-01 states that Lead Agencies have
31	flexibility to establish procedures for verifying an applicant's citizenship or immigration status.
32	However, the procedures must be in accordance with U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ)
33	requirements set forth in the November 17, 1997, DOJ Interim Guidance on Verification of
34	Citizenship, Qualified Alien Status and Eligibility Under Title IV of PRWORA found at
35	http://www.dhhs.gov/ocr/nationalorigin/interimguidance.pdf. The Commission will issue
36	guidance to the Boards on methods for verifying a child's citizenship or immigration status that
37	comply with the DOJ guidance.
38
39	Also, because some child care contractors are nonprofit charitable organizations and exempt
40	from verifying citizenship or immigration status under PRWORA §432(d), the Commission will
41	also issue guidance to Boards that maintains this exemption but ensures that the verifications are
42	performed.
44	Certain paragraphs in §809.41 have been renumbered to accommodate additions or deletions.
45

PART III. IMPACT STATEMENTS 1 2 Randy Townsend, Chief Financial Officer, has determined that for each year of the first five 3 4 years the rules will be in effect, the following statements will apply: 5 There are no additional estimated costs to the state and local governments expected as a result of 6 enforcing or administering the rules. 7 8 9 There are no estimated reductions in costs to the state government as a result of enforcing or administering the rules. There may be additional costs to Local Workforce Development Boards 10 (local governments), but these costs are not expected to be significant. 11 12 There are no estimated losses or increases in revenue to the state or to local governments as a 13 result of enforcing or administering the rules. 14 15 There are no foreseeable implications relating to costs or revenue of the state or local 16 17 governments as a result of enforcing or administering the rules. 18 There are no anticipated economic costs to persons required to comply with the rules. 19 20 21 There is no anticipated adverse economic impact on small or microbusinesses as a result of 22 enforcing or administering the rules. 23 24 Economic Impact Statement and Regulatory Flexibility Analysis The Agency has determined that the proposed rules will not have an adverse economic impact on 25 small businesses as these proposed rules place no requirements on small businesses, including 26 child care providers. 27 28 29 The reasoning that led to these conclusions for the following changes is as follows: 30 Program Instruction CCDF-ACF-PI-2008-01--''Verification of Citizenship and Immigration 31 Status by Non-Profit Organizations and Head Start Grantees"--states that: 32 33 Section 432(d) of PRWORA, as amended, provides that, 'a nonprofit charitable 34 organization, in providing any Federal public benefit...or any State or local public 35 benefit... is not required under this chapter to determine, verify, or otherwise require 36 proof of eligibility of any applicant for such benefits.' (8 USC 1642(d)). A Lead Agency 37 may not require non-profit organizations determining eligibility in the CCDF program to 38 39 verify citizenship and immigration status. In ACYF-PI-CC-98-08, the Child Care Bureau stated that the exemption at section 432(d) of PRWORA does not apply where 40 eligibility for services is determined by a governmental entity, but does apply if eligibility 41 for CCDF services is determined by a non-profit charitable organization. The guidance 42 did not clarify whether a CCDF Lead Agency would retain responsibility for verifying an 43

44 applicant's legal status in circumstances where the Lead Agency has selected a non-profit
 45 charitable organization to determine eligibility for CCDF services on the Lead Agency's behalf, and the non-profit organization elects not to verify citizenship and immigration 1 2 status.

This Program Instruction clarifies that, while non-profit organizations are exempt from 4 verification requirements mandated by title IV of PRWORA, this exemption does not 5 release the Lead Agency from its responsibilities to assure that only individuals 'eligible' 6 for services receive them. If a non-profit organization contracted by the Lead Agency 7 elects not to verify the citizenship and immigration status of applicants for CCDF 8 benefits, the Lead Agency retains this responsibility and therefore must establish 9 procedures for verification. A Lead Agency may want to consider this fact when entering 10 into an agreement with the non-profit charitable organization. A Lead Agency could 11 choose to enter into contracts only with non-profit organizations that are willing to verify 12 citizenship and immigration status when determining eligibility for CCDF services. 13

Child care eligibility for CCDF programs is determined in Texas by entities contracting with 14 workforce Boards, a majority of which are "non-profit charitable organizations." Former ACF 15 guidance in ACYF-PI-CC-98-08 did not specify whether the CCDF Lead Agency contracting 16 17 with nonprofit charitable organizations (which are not required to verify the child's citizenship or immigration status) retains the responsibility for ensuring that such verification is conducted. 18 This latest guidance, however, clarifies that the state's CCDF Lead Agency is responsible for 19

ensuring that only individuals who are eligible for CCDF services receive them, and TWC is 20

clarifying in these rules that workforce Boards are responsible for assuring that only eligible 21

22 individuals are served in CCDF programs in their workforce area, including the verification of a child's citizenship and immigration status when "non-profit charitable organizations" have 23

24 elected not to verify such information.

26 Program Instruction CCDF-ACF-PI-2008-01 states that Lead Agencies have flexibility to establish procedures for verifying an applicant's citizenship or immigration status. However, the 27 procedures must be in accordance with U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) requirements set forth 28 in the November 17, 1997, DOJ Interim Guidance on Verification of Citizenship, Qualified 29 Alien Status and Eligibility Under Title IV of PRWORA. Program staff has reviewed the DOJ 30 guidance and documentation that verifies citizenship or immigration status and point out that 31 review of the documentation indicates that a majority of the documentation used to verify 32 citizenship--such as birth certificates, baptismal records, hospital or public health birth records, 33 or public assistance or social service records--may also be used to verify the child's age. 34 Verification of the child's age is currently a requirement under §809.41(a)(1). Program staff 35 concludes, therefore, that because verifying citizenship can be accomplished during the current 36 process for verifying the child's age, this new requirement is not expected to add additional costs 37 on workforce Board child care contractors. Furthermore, the DOJ documentation requirement to 38 verify a non-citizen's legal immigration status is very specific and typically the legal immigrant 39 family has ready access to such documentation. Program staff does not expect that requesting 40 this additional documentation will place any additional costs on the workforce Board's child care

- 41 42 contractor.
- 43

44 The actual costs of verification of a child's citizenship and immigration status may vary, depending upon the circumstances. In cases where such verification may not be done currently 45

(i.e., if a nonprofit charitable organization has elected not to verify such information) and the 46

pertinent workforce Board must now make procurement changes to assure that such verification 1 2 is completed, then it may be logical to expect that additional costs will be incurred. However, there is no obvious basis to estimate the amount of such a cost increase, (a) particularly when 3 such verification can occur using the same documentation currently used to verify the child's 4 age; (b) irrespective of whether virtually all or some lesser proportion of citizenship and 5 immigration status for children in subsidized child care is currently verified, and with no obvious 6 pattern of association, there is a significant variance among workforce Boards in the cost per 7 subsidized child care unit for "administration" and "operations" and in combined 8 "administration" and "operations" as a proportion of child care allocations (eligibility 9 determination being a subset of "administration" and "operations"); and (c) there is no readily 10 available information from ACF or state sources on the actual or a target cost for eligibility 11 verification or child citizenship and immigration status verification. Additionally, however, it is 12 well to note that such costs are likely to be not significant, as child citizenship and immigration 13 status verification for child care is a one-time procedure per child (i.e., as compared to parental 14 working status and income level, which may be verified as much as four times per year), and 15 may alternatively be satisfied through the required verification process associated with some 16 17 other program, such as qualification for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families or food stamps, prior to qualification for subsidized child care. 18 19 20 These rules would not have adverse economic effects on small businesses or microbusinesses because small businesses or microbusinesses are not regulated or otherwise affected by the rules. 21 22 Mark Hughes, Director of Labor Market Information, has determined that there is no significant 23 negative impact upon employment conditions in the state as a result of the rules. 24 25 26 Laurence M. Jones, Director, Workforce Development Division, has determined that for each year of the first five years the rules are in effect, the public benefit anticipated as a result of 27 enforcing the proposed rules will be to ensure that public child care funds are spent in 28 accordance with federal laws, regulations, and guidelines. 29 30 The Agency hereby certifies that the proposal has been reviewed by legal counsel and found to 31 be within the Agency's legal authority to adopt. 32 33 PART IV. COORDINATION ACTIVITIES 34 35 In the development of these rules for publication and public comment, the Commission sought 36 37 the involvement of Texas' 28 Boards. The Commission provided the concept paper regarding these rule amendments to the Boards for consideration and review on August 5, 2008. The 38 39 Commission also conducted a conference call with Board executive directors and Board staff on

- 40 August 8, 2008, to discuss the concept paper. During the rulemaking process, the Commission
- 41 considered all information gathered in order to develop rules that provide clear and concise
- 42 direction to all parties involved.
- 43
- 44 Comments on the proposed rules may be submitted to TWC Policy Comments, Workforce
- 45 Policy and Service Delivery, attn: Workforce Editing, 101 East 15th Street, Room 440T, Austin,
- 46 Texas 78778; faxed to (512) 475-3577; or e-mailed to TWCPolicyComments@twc.state.tx.us.

- 1 The Commission must receive comments postmarked no later than 30 days from the date this
- 2 proposal is published in the Texas Register.
- 3
- 4 The rules are proposed under Texas Labor Code §301.0015 and §302.002(d), which provide the
- 5 Commission with the authority to adopt, amend, or repeal such rules as it deems necessary for
- 6 the effective administration of Agency services and activities, and the Texas Human Resources
- 7 Code §44.002, regarding Administrative Rules.
- 8
- 9 The proposed rules will affect Texas Labor Code, Title 4, particularly Chapters 301 and 302, as
 - 10 well as Texas Government Code, Chapter 2308.
