

Adult Education and Literacy
Advisory Committee
Discussion Paper

Background

Senate Bill 307, 83rd Texas Legislature, Regular Session (2013), required the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) to establish an Adult Education and Literacy (AEL) advisory committee. The advisory committee must not be composed of more than nine members and must include at least one representative of the business community and one representative of a Local Workforce Development Board (Board).

Additionally, TWC Chapter 805 Adult Education and Literacy rule §805.43 allows for the appointment of members to an additional two-year term.

Issue

One committee member’s term ended in June 2020.
