*Residents of Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands are U.S. citizens. Citizens of American Samoa are nationals and must register when they are habitual residents in the U.S. or reside in the U.S. for at least one year. "Habitual residence" is presumed and registration is required whenever a national or a citizen of the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or Palau resides in the U.S. for more than one year in any status, except when the individual resides in the U.S. as an employee of the government of their homeland; or as a student who entered the U.S. for the purpose of full-time studies, as long as such person maintains that status.

Note: Immigrants who did not enter the U.S. or maintained their lawful nonimmigrant status by continually remaining on a valid visa until after they were 26 years old were never required to register. Also, immigrants born before 1960, who did not enter the U.S. or maintained their lawful nonimmigrant status by continually remaining on a valid visa until after March 29, 1975, were never required to register.
