This poster provides some guidelines to the Texas child labor laws, but it is not complete. Chapter 51, Texas Labor Code, governs the employment of children under Texas state law. MINIMUM AGE FOR EMPLOYMENT IS 14; however, state and federal laws provide for certain exceptions. Please call TWC's Wage and Hour Department concerning questions about labor law. The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) governs federal laws and guidelines pertaining to child labor. For information concerning federal child labor laws, consult your local office of the U.S. Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division or call 866-487-9243.

Child Actors- state law
Child actor definition – a child under the age of 14 who is to be employed as an actor or other performer.

Child actor extra definition – a child under the age of 14 who is employed as an extra without any speaking, singing, or dancing roles, usually in the background of the performance.

Every person applying for child actor authorization must submit an application for authorization on a form provided by the Texas Workforce Commission. Special authorization for child actors to be employed as extras is granted without the need for filing an application if the employer meets the Texas Workforce Commission's requirements. Contact 1-800-832-9243 for instruction.

PENALTIES:

State of Texas – An offense under Chapter 51, Texas Labor Code, is a Class B misdemeanor, except for the offense of employing a child under 14 to sell solicits, which is a Class A misdemeanor. If the Commission determines that a person who employs a child has violated this Act, or a rule adopted under this Act, the Commission may assess an administrative penalty against that person in an amount not to exceed $10,000 for each violation. The attorney general may seek injunctive relief in district court against an employer who repeatedly violates the law. Employers who repeatedly violate this Act relating to the employment of children.

Federal – The FLSA prescribes a maximum administrative penalty of $11,000 per violation and/or criminal prosecution and fines.
