ADDITIONAL RESOURCES FOR WORKFORCE BOARD MEMBERS

www.texasworkforce.org – The Texas Workforce Solutions Web site includes reports and publications, program and performance information, a Workforce Board directory, workforce development policy letters, links to laws and rules, and other related sites.

www.lmci.state.tx.us – The Labor Market and Career Information department of the Texas Workforce Commission provides a variety of data and statistics about employment and career development, as well as tools that are useful for regional economic analysis.

www.doleta.gov – This is the United States Department of Labor’s Employment & Training Administration site. It supports state and local workforce development systems in their efforts to provide high quality job training and employment services.

www.oag.state.tx.us – The Texas Office of the Attorney General provides information on open government training, including the mandated Public Information and Open Meetings Acts training for public officials.

www.ethics.state.tx.us – The Texas Ethics Commission serves as a repository of required disclosure statements for state officials, political committees, candidates, and lobbyists; a resource on ethical conduct; and a clearinghouse for public and press inquiries.

http://governor.state.tx.us/twic/ – The Texas Workforce Investment Council which serves as the State Workforce Investment Board under the federal Workforce Investment Act. Click on Workforce System Strategic Plan to get information about its statewide strategic plan for workforce development.

http://governor.state.tx.us/ecodev/ – The Governor’s Office of Economic Development and Tourism markets Texas to relocating businesses and assists communities to further their economic development efforts.

http://governor.state.tx.us/ecodev/business_research/subjects/ – The Governor’s Office also maintains a Business and Industry Data Center with an online review and analysis of state economic demographic trends.
http://www.cpa.state.tx.us/finances/ – The Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts operates the Window on State Government, providing essential information on revenue, market indicators, and economic forecasting.

www.texasindustryprofiles.com – The Texas Industry Profiles site provides information on labor supply, employment dynamics, economic base analysis, industry staffing patterns, industry clustering, and geographic mapping of business data.

http://txsdc.utsa.edu/ – The Texas State Data Center and Office of the State Demographer offer a variety of demographical information about the state’s populace.

http://www.twc.state.tx.us/boards/board_plan/integratedplan.html – This is the Texas Workforce Commission’s site for Board planning, performance, labor market assessment and policy-making guidance.

Books, Manuals, Brochures, and Papers

Texas Workforce New Board Member Orientation Guide— Every new Board member receives this guide and supplemental materials that contain information needed to fulfill their role. (http://www.twc.state.tx.us/boards/training/boardorientrng.html)

Workforce Board Leadership: Advice from Experienced CEOs— National Association of Workforce Board’s Workforce Board Development Series. (order through www.nawb.org)

Overseeing One-Stops: A WIB Member’s Guide to Quality Assurance— National Association of Workforce Board’s Workforce Board Development Series. (order through www.nawb.org)

Putting Your WIB on the Political Map: Tips on Marketing, Communications and Public Relations— National Association of Workforce Board’s Workforce Board Development Series. (order through www.nawb.org.)
Discussions with Board Directors and Chairs: Setting the Stage for Workforce Board Success— (Order through www.nawb.org.)

Welcome to the Board: Your Guide to Effective Participation— Fisher Howe. (can be obtained through www.amazon.com.)

Planning Local Economic Development: Theory and Practice by Edward J. Blakely and Ted K. Bradshaw. (Can be obtained through www.amazon.com.)

Return on Invest$ment: Guidelines to Determine Workforce Development Impact— Second Edition. Dennis K. Benson, Ph.D, talks about estimating the economic impact of publicly funded workforce development programs. (Can be obtained through www.amazon.com.)

Workforce 2020— Richard Judy and Carol D’Amico. Skilled economists, education experts, and policy researchers provide a vision of the future American workforce and what workforce development professionals should be doing to prepare. (Can be obtained through www.amazon.com.)

The TWC Financial Manual for Grants and Contracts – if a Board member is on a contract or finance committee, this manual might help with understanding contracts better. (Download at http://www.twc.state.tx.us/business/fmgc/fmgc_toc.html.)

Chief Elected Official’s Membership Guide for Local Workforce Development Boards – The Guide provides a list of all state and federal requirements for the establishment of Boards relating to appointments, re-appointments, and vacancies. (Can be downloaded at http://www.twc.state.tx.us/boards/guides/ceoguide.pdf.)

The GAO’s Human Capital: Key Principles for Effective Strategic Workforce Planning – a federal guide for strategic planning in the one-stop system. (Can be downloaded at http://www.gao.gov/new.items/d0439.pdf.)

The Texas Workforce Commission’s Strategic Planning, Managing Strategically – a guide to strategic planning theory and processes. (can be downloaded at http://www.twc.state.tx.us/boards/board_plan/strat_planning.pdf)
Associations

American Public Human Services Association – a nonprofit organization of individuals and agencies concerned with human services. The mission of APHSA is to develop, promote, and implement public human service policies that improve the health and well being of families, children, and adults.  www.aphsa.org

National Association of State Workforce Agencies – the national organization of state administrators of unemployment insurance, and employment and training services. The mission of NASWA is to strengthen national workforce development through information exchange, liaison and advocacy. www.naswa.org

National Association of Workforce Boards – this professional association represents the interests of the nation’s Workforce Boards. NAWB supports and promotes the work of its members through a comprehensive program of advocacy, technical assistance and communication activities. www.nawb.org

National Governor’s Association – a coalition of state governors concerned with education, economic development, and workforce innovation and competitiveness. The site includes a Center for Best Practices. www.nga.org

National Association of Counties promotes innovation and excellent performance in locally based workforce programs through conferences, training sessions, publications, and peer-to-peer exchanges. http://www.naco.org/

National Leadership Institute is an alliance of organizations dedicated to transforming the nation’s workforce investment system into a high performance system. Serves workforce Board members and key staff by providing access to a wide variety of leadership development resources and tools. www.nationalleadershipinstitute.org

National Association of Workforce Development Professionals is professional association for individuals working in workforce programs. www.nawdp.org

The United States Chamber of Commerce is the world’s largest non-profit business federation representing businesses, state and local chambers, and business associations. Staff include policy specialists, lobbyists, and lawyers providing a voice of experience and influence in the nation’s capitol. www.uschamber.com