BACKGROUND:

SB 286 amends Texas Government Code §551.005 and §552.012 to include mandatory Open Meetings Act and Public Information Act training requirements for elected and appointed officials. The intent of the training is to prevent unintentional violations of open government laws and to strengthen the public's confidence in governing bodies.

Effective January 1, 2006, SB 286 directs at least two hours of open government training, consisting of one educational course on the Open Meetings Act and one educational course on the Public Information Act.

There are no grandfather provisions for public officials who may have attended open government training in the past. Under provisions of the new law, only training approved by the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) complies with SB 286.

~~On December 12, 2005, OAG released training materials for all public officials to comply with open government training requirements.~~ Texas Government Code §551.001(3) includes Boards, as created under §2308.253, in the definition of governmental bodies. Information and resources related to open government requirements and the training are available on the OAG Web site:

Note: House Bill 2120 and Senate Bill 1619, each enacted by the 80th Texas Legislature, Regular Session (2007), state that unemployment compensation information maintained by the Commission is not subject to the Public Information Act. For questions regarding the applicability of these bills, contact the Commission's Office of General Counsel, Open Records, at (512) 463-2422.

PROCEDURES:

Boards must comply with Board responsibilities and requirements as set forth in the Open Meetings and Public Information Acts.

NLF

Boards must:

- ensure that Board members complete Open Meetings Act training, consisting of one educational course on the Open Meetings Act;
- designate a public information coordinator and a sufficient number of backup staff for the public information coordinator; and
- ensure that the public information coordinator and all backup staff complete the Public Information Act training course.

NLF

~~Boards must ensure that Board members complete the Open Meetings Act and Public Information Act training courses and that public information officers complete the Public Information Act training course.~~

~~However, as set forth in SB 286, Board members are not required to complete the Public Information Act training course if the Board employs a designated public information coordinator to be responsible for responding to Public Information Act requests on behalf of the Board.~~

In order for the Board to authorize the public information coordinator to complete the Public Information Act course and act on behalf of all Board members, the Board must take such action in an open meeting. ~~In this case, the Board must ensure that the public information coordinator completes the Public Information Act training on behalf of the Board members.~~

OAG has advised that designation of a public information coordinator to complete training on behalf of a Board member does not relieve the Board member of his or her duty to comply with other provisions of the Public Information Act. Therefore, it is recommended that all Board members complete the Public Information Act course regardless of whether a designated public information coordinator also receives the training.

NLF

Boards must ensure that Board members in office before January 1, 2006, complete the required training before January 1, 2007. Board members elected or appointed after January 1, 2006, have 90 days to complete the required training.

NLF

Boards must ensure that Board members use the free OAG-approved open government training, available online or on DVD.
